Definitions

1. (1) In this Regulation, unless specified otherwise, terms used have the same meaning as in the Nisga'a Elections Act.
- (2) In this Regulation:
 - “Act” means the Nisga'a Elections Act;
 - “board” means the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Board;
 - “chairperson” means the chairperson of the board.

Application

2. This Regulation applies to requests for review and applications to the board that are authorized under the Act.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS DISPUTE RESOLUTION REGULATION

PART 1 – SECTIONS 12 AND 19 OF THE ACTApplication and definitions

3. (1) This Part applies to a request for review of a decision permitted under section 12(1) or (2) of the Act or under section 19(1) or (2) of the Act.
- (2) In this Part:
- “complainant” means the person who has filed a complaint in accordance with section 4;
- “complaint” means a complaint filed in accordance with section 4;
- “party to the review” means the complainant, the respondent, if any, or the Nisga’a Elections Officer;
- “respondent” means, in the case of a review
- (a) under section 12(1) or (2) of the Act, the person whose right to be included on the preliminary list of voters is the subject of the complaint, if that person is not the complainant, or
- (b) under section 19(2) of the Act, the person who has been determined by the Nisga’a Elections Officer to be qualified to stand for an elected office to be filled in an election;
- “review” means the review of a decision requested in accordance with this Part.

Filing a complaint

4. (1) A person requesting the review of a decision under section 12(1) or (2) of the Act must file a complaint in Form One of this Regulation.
- (2) A person requesting the review of a decision under section 19(1) of the Act must file a complaint in Form Two of this Regulation.
- (3) A person requesting the review of a decision under section 19(2) of the Act must file a complaint in Form Three of this Regulation.
- (4) As soon as practicable after receiving a complaint under subsections (1) to (3), the administrative review officer must deliver a copy of the complaint to
- (a) the Nisga’a Elections Officer, and

- (b) the respondent, if any.
- (5) Within two days after receiving a copy of a complaint under subsection (4), the Nisga'a Elections Officer must submit the following records respecting the disputed decision to the administrative review officer:
 - (a) any record of oral evidence received or relied upon;
 - (b) copies of any documentary evidence received or relied upon.

Summary hearing of jurisdictional issue

- 5. (1) At any time before a complaint filed under this Part is submitted to a panel of the board by the chairperson for consideration, the chairperson may, on the chairperson's own motion or on written request of the Nisga'a Elections Officer or a respondent, conduct a summary hearing as described in section 31 to make a ruling on a jurisdictional issue arising out of the complaint.
- (2) The chairperson's ruling in a summary hearing under subsection (1) is a final decision of the board.

Conduct of review

- 6. (1) The chairperson must establish a panel of the board to conduct a review as soon as practicable.
- (2) The chairperson must
 - (a) determine whether the review will be conducted on the basis of an oral hearing or written submissions,
 - (b) if an oral hearing is to be held, specify the date of the hearing, and
 - (c) if no oral hearing is to be held, specify the date by which written submissions may be filed.
- (3) The administrative review officer must give to the parties to the review
 - (a) notice of the chairperson's determination under subsection (2)(a),
 - (b) if an oral hearing is to be held, not less than three days notice of the time, date, and location of the oral hearing, and

- (c) if no oral hearing is to be held, not less than three days notice of the date by which a party to the review must file any written submissions with the administrative review officer.
 - (4) Sections 3(7), 5(2)(a), 10(2) and (4) to (8), 11(3), 12, 14, 15, 16(2) and (6), 17(8) to (11) and 18(1) and (3) of the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Act, each read with any changes required by the context, apply to the conduct of a review.
 - (5) The panel of the board may receive and accept on oath or by affirmation, by affidavit or otherwise, evidence that the panel considers relevant and credible, whether or not the evidence would be admissible in a court of law.

Panel determination and order

- 7. (1) After conducting a review under section 12 of the Act, the panel of the board must make and set out in writing its determination and order under section 12(4) or (5) of the Act, as applicable.
- (2) After conducting a review under section 19 of the Act, the panel of the board must make and set out in writing its determination and order under section 19(4) or (5) of the Act, as applicable.
- (3) The determination and the order of the panel of the board under subsection (1) or (2) must be made as soon as practicable but, in any event, not later than two days
 - (a) after completion of the oral hearing, or
 - (b) if no oral hearing is held, after the date specified by the chairperson under section 6(2)(c) for filing written submissions.
- (4) Despite any other provision in this Regulation, the panel of the board conducting a review under section 19 of the Act must make its determination and order under section 19(5) of the Act not later than 35 days before the general voting day for the election in question.

PART 2 – SECTION 30 OF THE ACTApplication and definitions

8. (1) This Part applies to a request for review of a ruling permitted under section 30(4) of the Act.
- (2) In this Part:
- “complainant” means the person who has filed a complaint in accordance with section 9;
- “complaint” means a complaint filed in accordance with section 9;
- “review” means the review of a ruling requested in accordance with this Part.

Filing a complaint

9. (1) A person requesting the review of a ruling made under section 30(3) of the Act must make an oral complaint to the administrative review officer as described in section 33(7) of this Regulation.
- (2) The administrative review officer must make a written record of the following information when a complaint is made under subsection (1):
- (a) the name of the complainant;
 - (b) the complainant’s Nisga’a citizenship number;
 - (c) the time when the complaint was received;
 - (d) the location and the telephone number where the complainant can be reached for purposes of conduct of the review;
 - (e) details of the ruling complained of, including
 - (i) the nature or substance of the ruling,
 - (ii) who made the ruling,
 - (iii) where and when the ruling was made, and
 - (iv) why the complainant believes that their right to vote has been denied.

- (3) The administrative review officer must notify the Nisga'a Elections Officer as soon as practicable
 - (a) that a complaint has been made, including the details recorded under subsection (2), and
 - (b) the time when the oral hearing under section 10(2) will be held.
 - (4) On being notified of a complaint under subsection (3), the Nisga'a Elections Officer must advise the administrative review officer of the name of, and contact information for, the election official, if any, who will participate in the oral hearing under section 10(2).

Conduct of review

10. (1) As soon as practicable the chairperson must establish a panel of the board consisting of one board member to conduct the review.
- (2) The panel of the board must conduct the review as an oral hearing by telephone or using other communication facilities as described in section 30(2).
- (3) The panel of the board may receive and accept any evidence that the panel considers relevant and credible, whether or not the evidence would be admissible in a court of law.
- (4) If an election official does not present any evidence or make a submission in respect of the complaint in the oral hearing, the panel of the board may make an order under section 11(1) based solely on information provided by the complainant.
- (5) Sections 3(7), 5(2)(a), 10(4), 12, 14, 17(11) and 18(1) and (3) of the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Act, each read with any changes required by the context, apply to the conduct of the review.

Panel determination and order

11. (1) Following conclusion of the oral hearing, the panel of the board must make its determination and order under section 30(6) of the Act.
- (2) Notice of the determination and the order of the panel of the board under subsection (1) must be given immediately to
 - (a) the complainant, and
 - (b) the election official who participated in the hearing or, if none participated, to the Nisga'a Elections Officer.

- (3) The determination and order made under subsection (1) is a final order of the board and takes effect immediately.
- (4) On written request of the Nisga'a Elections Officer or the complainant filed within two days after the making of the determination and order under subsection (1), the panel of the board must provide to the Nisga'a Elections Officer and the complainant, as soon as practicable, one or both of the following:
 - (a) written notice of the determination and the order made under subsection (1);
 - (b) written reasons for the determination and the order made under subsection (1).

Communication of order

- 12. The election official who participated in the oral hearing or, if none participated, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must immediately communicate the determination and order made under section 11(1) to any election officials who are affected by that determination and order.

PART 3 – SECTION 62 OF THE ACTApplication and definitions

13. (1) This Part applies to an application for a recount of votes as permitted in section 62 of the Act.

(2) In this Part:

“applicant” means the person who has filed an application in accordance with section 14(1) or 15(1), as the case may be;

“application” means an application filed in accordance with section 14(1) or 15(1), as the case may be;

“party to the application” means the applicant, a respondent or the Nisga'a Elections Officer;

“presiding chairperson” means the chairperson presiding over a recount;

“recount” means the recount conducted under this Part;

“respondent” means, in the case of an application respecting

- (a) an elected office in an election, a candidate for that elected office in that election,
- (b) a referendum of the Nisga'a Nation, the Chief Executive Officer, or
- (c) a referendum of a Nisga'a Village, the Chief Administrator of the relevant Nisga'a Village Government.

Filing an application for election recount

14. (1) A person requesting a recount of the votes for an elected office in an election under section 62(1) of the Act must file an application in Form Four of this Regulation with the administrative review officer.

(2) The administrative review officer must deliver a copy of the application filed under subsection (1) as soon as practicable to the Nisga'a Elections Officer and to the respondent or respondents, as the case may be.

Filing an application for referendum recount

15. (1) A person requesting a recount of the votes in a referendum under section 62(3) of the Act must file an application in Form Five of this Regulation with the administrative review officer.
- (2) The administrative review officer must deliver a copy of the application filed under subsection (1) as soon as practicable to the Nisga'a Elections Officer and to the respondent.

Conduct of application

16. (1) The board must conduct the hearing of an application by written submissions.
- (2) As soon as practicable after receipt by the administrative review officer of an application, the chairperson must specify a date, not later than three days after the administrative review officer received the application, by which written submissions may be filed.
- (3) The administrative review officer must give the parties to the application notice of the date specified by the chairperson under subsection (2) for the filing of written submissions with the administrative review officer.
- (4) The chairperson must appoint a panel of the board consisting of the chairperson and two other board members to consider the application.
- (5) The panel of the board must make a summary determination of the application after taking into consideration the following:
- (a) the application and the documents filed with the application;
 - (b) any written submissions received from the parties to the application by the date specified by the chairperson under subsection (2).
- (6) Sections 3(7), 5(2)(a), 10(4) to (8), 12, 14, 17(6) to (11) and 18(1) and (3) of the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Act, each with any changes required by the context, apply to the conduct of the application.

Panel determination and order

17. (1) After considering the information described in section 16(5), the panel of the board must make and set out in writing
- (a) its summary determination of the application for a recount under section 62(1) or

NISGA'A ELECTIONS DISPUTE RESOLUTION REGULATION

- (3) of the Act, as applicable, and
- (b) its order under section 62(5) of the Act.
- (2) The summary determination and the order of the panel of the board under subsection (1) must be made as soon as practicable but, in any event, not later than two days after the date specified by the chairperson in section 16(2) for filing written submissions.

Recount requirements

- 18. If the panel of the board makes an order under section 17 that a recount of the votes for an elected office in the election or a recount of the votes in the referendum, as the case may be, will be conducted, the board must conduct the recount in accordance with this Part as soon as practicable and, in any event, not more than 12 days after the day the final results of the election or the referendum were published under section 60 of the Act.

Time, date and location of recount

- 19. (1) The chairperson must set the time, date and location for a recount.
- (2) As soon as practicable, the administrative review officer must notify the following persons of the time, date and location at which the recount is to be conducted:
- (a) the Nisga'a Elections Officer;
 - (b) the applicant;
 - (c) the respondent or the respondents, as the case may be.

Conduct of recount

- 20. (1) Every member of the board must participate in a recount unless excused from participation by the chairperson by reason of conflict of interest or any other extraordinary circumstance.
- (2) The chairperson must preside over a recount unless the chairperson is unable to preside by reason of conflict of interest or any other extraordinary circumstance.
- (3) If the chairperson is unable to preside over a recount, the remaining board members must select another board member to preside over the recount.
- (4) No persons, other than those described in section 63 of the Act, may be present at a recount unless the presiding chairperson orders otherwise.

Delivery of voting materials to place of recount

- 21. (1) On the date set under section 19(1) for the recount of the votes in an election or referendum, the Nisga'a Elections Officer must bring or arrange delivery to the location of the recount the following materials pertaining to the election or referendum:
- (a) the ballot boxes containing any ballots at issue in the recount;
 - (b) the certification or secrecy envelopes containing any ballots at issue in the recount;
 - (c) the ballot accounts and any other accounts prepared in connection with the initial count that pertain to the ballots or envelopes at issue in the recount;
 - (d) the accounts prepared in connection with the final count that pertain to the ballots or envelopes at issue in the recount.
- (2) The Nisga'a Elections Officer must deliver custody of the items described in subsection (1) to the presiding chairperson.

Recount procedure

- 22. (1) In a recount of the votes marked on the ballots cast in an election or referendum, the presiding chairperson must preside over a consideration of the ballots and certification or secrecy envelopes at issue in accordance with the requirements of the Act and its regulations governing the initial and final counts in that election or referendum.
- (2) The presiding chairperson may limit the ballots and envelopes to be considered on the recount from those for which the recount was requested, if consented to by each of the following persons who are entitled to be and who are present at the recount:
- (a) the applicant;
 - (b) the Nisga'a Elections Officer;
 - (c) if the recount is of the votes marked on the ballots case in an election for an elected office, the candidates for that elected office;
 - (d) if the recount is of the votes marked on the ballots cast in a referendum of the Nisga'a Nation, the Chief Executive Officer;
 - (e) if the recount is of the votes marked on the ballots cast in a referendum of a Nisga'a Village, the Chief Administrator of the relevant Nisga'a Village

Government.

- (3) Unless otherwise directed by the presiding chairperson, the presiding chairperson must retain custody of the ballot boxes brought for the recount until the recount is completed.
- (4) Unless otherwise directed by the presiding chairperson, the presiding chairperson must arrange for the resealing of any opened ballot boxes
 - (a) during a recess or adjournment of a recount, and
 - (b) after completion of the recount.

Delivery of voting materials on completion of recount

- 23. On completion of the recount, the presiding chairperson must deliver custody of the items described in section 21(1) to the Nisga'a Elections Officer.

PART 4 – SECTION 67 OF THE ACTApplication and definitions

24. (1) This Part applies to an application for an order that an election or a referendum be declared invalid under section 67(1) or (3) of the Act.

(2) In this Part:

“applicant” means the person who has filed an application in accordance with section 25(1) or (2), as the case may be;

“application” means an application filed in accordance with section 25(1) or (2), as the case may be;

“party to the application” means

(a) a respondent who has delivered a notice under section 25(4) of an intention to participate in the hearing of the application, and

(b) the Nisga'a Elections Officer;

“respondent” means, in the case of an application respecting

(a) an elected office in an election, the candidates for that elected office in that election,

(b) a referendum of the Nisga'a Nation, the Chief Executive Officer, and

(c) a referendum of a Nisga'a Village, the Chief Administrator of the relevant Nisga'a Village Government.

Filing an application

25. (1) A person making an application under section 67(1) of the Act must file an application in Form Six of this Regulation.

(2) A person making an application under section 67(3) of the Act must file an application in Form Seven of this Regulation.

(3) As soon as practicable after receiving an application under subsection (1) or (2), the administrative review officer must deliver a copy of the application

- (a) to the Nisga'a Elections Officer, and
 - (b) to the respondent or respondents, as the case may be.
- (4) Within two days after receiving a copy of an application under subsection (3), a respondent must notify the administrative review officer if the respondent intends to participate in the hearing of the application.

Submission of election or referendum records

- 26. (1) Within two days after receiving a copy of an application under section 25(3), the Nisga'a Elections Officer must deliver to the administrative review officer all records concerning the election or referendum that are
- (a) in the possession or custody of the Nisga'a Elections Officer or other elections officials, and
 - (b) relevant to the matters alleged in the application as grounds for declaring the election or referendum, as the case may be, to be invalid.
- (2) At any time during the consideration of the application, the chairperson may, on the chairperson's own motion or on written request of a party to the application, order the Nisga'a Elections Officer to deliver to the administrative review officer any additional records concerning the election or referendum that have not been delivered under subsection (1).
- (3) Before the oral hearing is held or before written submissions must be filed, the chairperson must provide a reasonable opportunity for the parties to the application to examine the records referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) As soon as practicable and, in any event, before the panel of the board has made its determinations and order under section 29, the chairperson must provide a reasonable opportunity for the parties to the application to examine the records referred to in subsection (2).
- (5) The chairperson must ensure that the administrative review officer or a member of the board is continuously present at the time, date and location the chairperson has specified for the parties to the application to examine the records referred to in subsection (1) or (2).
- (6) No party to the application may
- (a) make a copy of any records made available for examination under this section unless otherwise ordered by the chairperson, or

- (b) remove from the specified location any records made available for examination under this section.
- (7) Unless otherwise directed by the chairperson, the administrative review officer must retain custody of any original records delivered to the administrative review officer under this section until the panel of the board has made its determination and order under section 29.
- (8) If the records referred to in this section include the contents of ballot boxes,
 - (a) the administrative review officer must arrange for the resealing of any opened ballot boxes after the time made available for an examination under this section has ended, and
 - (b) the chairperson must arrange for the resealing of all ballot boxes after any oral hearing is concluded under this Part or after the panel of the board has concluded its deliberations in the application, as the case may be.
- (9) On completion of the proceedings under this Part, the administrative review officer must deliver or arrange delivery of all the records referred to in this section to the Nisga'a Elections Officer.

Summary hearing of jurisdictional issue

- 27. (1) At any time before an application filed under this Part is submitted to a panel of the board by the chairperson for consideration, the chairperson may, on the chairperson's own motion or on written request of a respondent or the Nisga'a Elections Officer, conduct a summary hearing as described in section 31 to make a ruling on a jurisdictional issue arising out of the application.
- (2) The chairperson's ruling in a summary hearing under subsection (1) is a final decision of the board.

Conduct of application

- 28. (1) The chairperson must appoint a panel of the board consisting of the chairperson and two other board members to hear an application.
- (2) The chairperson must
- (a) determine whether the application will be conducted on the basis of an oral hearing or written submissions,

- (b) specify the time, date and location when the records referred to in section 26 may be examined by the parties to the application,
 - (c) if an oral hearing is to be held, specify the date of the hearing, and
 - (d) if no oral hearing is to be held, specify the date by which written submissions may be filed.
- (3) The administrative review officer must give to the parties to the application
- (a) notice of the chairperson's determination under subsection (2)(a),
 - (b) not less than two days notice of the time, date and location when the records referred to in section 26(1) may be examined by the parties to the application,
 - (c) if an oral hearing is to be held, not less than five days notice of the time, date, and location of the oral hearing, and
 - (d) if no oral hearing is to be held, not less than five days notice of the date by which a party to the application must file written submissions with the administrative review officer.
- (3) If an oral hearing is held, it must be open to the public.
- (4) The panel of the board may receive and accept on oath or by affirmation, by affidavit or otherwise, evidence that the panel considers relevant and credible, whether or not the evidence would be admissible in a court of law.
- (5) Sections 3(7), 5(2)(a), 10(4) to (8), 12, 14, 15, 16(2) and (6), 17(4), (6) to (8) and (11) and 18(1) and (3) of the Nisga'a Administrative Decisions Review Act, each with any changes required by the context, apply to the conduct of an application.

Panel determinations and order

- 29. (1) After considering the application, the panel of the board must make and set out in writing its determinations under section 67(5) of the Act and its order under section 67(6) of the Act.
- (2) The determinations and the order of the panel of the board under subsection (1) must be made as soon as practicable but, in any event, not later than two days
- (a) after completion of the oral hearing, or
 - (b) if no oral hearing is held, after the date specified by the chairperson under section

28(2)(d) for filing written submissions.

- (3) The panel of the board must provide written reasons for its determinations and order under subsection (1) to the parties to the application within seven days after making its determinations and order.

NISGA'A ELECTIONS DISPUTE RESOLUTION REGULATION

PART 5 – GENERALPractice and procedure

- 30. (1) Subject to the Act and this Regulation, the board may determine the practice and procedure for the conduct of a review or consideration of an application under this Regulation.
- (2) In this Regulation, if an oral hearing may be conducted “by telephone or using other communication facilities”, every party to the review or the application and every member of the panel of the board must be able to hear and to be heard by each of the participants.

Summary hearing on jurisdictional issue

- 31. (1) If a summary hearing on a jurisdictional issue is conducted under this Regulation, the chairperson must give the parties to the proceedings a reasonable opportunity
- (a) to make an oral submission on a specified time, date and place, or
- (b) to file a written submission within a specified time period.
- (2) The chairperson may conduct a summary hearing under this section by telephone or other communication facilities.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), after considering the complaint or application and any oral or written submissions made under subsection (1), the chairperson may make a ruling on the jurisdictional issue.
- (4) In the absence of any oral or written submissions, the chairperson may make a ruling under subsection (3) based solely on information set out in the complaint or application.
- (5) On request of a party to the proceedings, the chairperson must provide written reasons for a ruling under subsection (3) as soon as practicable.

Authority of panel of the board

- 32. Subject to the Act and this Regulation, a panel of the board has the powers and authority of the board under the Act and this Regulation.

Filings and delivery of notices

33. (1) If, under this Regulation, a complaint or application must be filed with the administrative review officer, the complainant or applicant must file the complaint or application, as the case may be, as follows:
- (a) by delivering the complaint or application to the administrative review officer at the board's offices, or
 - (b) by sending the complaint or application electronically by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number of the board's offices or by email to the email address of the board.
- (2) For purposes of the giving of notices by the administrative review officer under this Regulation, a complainant or an applicant as defined in any Part of this Regulation must provide the administrative review officer with the following contact information:
- (a) a telephone number at which the complainant or applicant may be contacted or at which a message may be left by voice mail or with another person for the complainant or applicant;
 - (b) a facsimile number or an email address to which notices or information may be sent to the complainant or applicant.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), any notice or information provided to a complainant or applicant by the administrative review officer relying upon the contact information referred to in subsection (2) for that person is considered to have been properly delivered or given to that person.
- (4) If, under this Regulation, the administrative review officer is required to give a written notice to a complainant or an applicant, the administrative review officer must give the notice
- (a) by delivering it personally to the complainant or applicant, as the case may be, or
 - (b) by sending it electronically
 - (i) by facsimile transmission to the facsimile number, or
 - (ii) by email to the email address,provided by the complainant or applicant, as the case may be.
- (5) If, under this Regulation, the administrative review officer is required to give either a written or oral notice to a person other than the complainant, the applicant or an election official, the administrative review officer may give the notice using any of the following methods:

- (a) by delivering it personally;
- (b) by leaving it with another person at a street address that
 - (i) the former person has provided under the Nisga'a Elections Act for purposes of receipt of communications under that Act and its regulations, or
 - (ii) the administrative review officer has reason to believe will result in the notice being delivered to the former person;
- (c) by leaving a message by voice mail or with another person at a telephone number that
 - (i) the former person has provided under the Nisga'a Elections Act for purposes of receipt of communications under that Act and its regulations, or
 - (ii) the administrative review officer has reason to believe will result in the notice being delivered to the former person; or
- (d) by sending it electronically by facsimile transmission to a facsimile number that or by email to an email address that
 - (i) the person has provided under the Nisga'a Elections Act for purposes of receipt of communications under that Act and its regulations, or
 - (ii) the administrative review officer has reason to believe will result in the notice being delivered to the person.
- (6) If a person referred to in subsection (5) is required to be given a notice, a notice given by the administrative review officer using one of the methods described under subsection (5) is considered to have been properly delivered or given to that person.
- (7) If, under this Regulation, a complaint must be made orally to the administrative review officer, the complainant must speak directly to the administrative review officer in person, by telephone or by other communication facilities which allow the complainant and the administrative review officer to hear each other.

Authority to extend or shorten time periods
